Dear Friends,

All philanthropy is good, but not all philanthropy is effective. Even the most well-intended charitable act may fail to produce a benefit that is commensurate with the effort expended.

At the Community Foundation of Northwest Connecticut, we are trying to make good decisions—ones that are equitable for our communities and mindful of our promise to honor the wishes of those who have given us the ability to assist others. The trustees and staff of the Foundation are grateful for this opportunity, and we work to provide the type of stewardship and services that you and our communities can be proud of.

Because of you, we are fortunate to be the caretakers of philanthropic resources that allow us to penetrate all aspects of community life and address the collective needs of our fellow citizens. And while making a genuine impact in each of our focus areas—Health, Education, Human Services, Arts and Culture, the Environment, and Animal Welfare—is an ever-present challenge, we are dedicated to finding ways to assist our nonprofits and students in making the most of the dollars we grant them.

Much of what we focused on this past year centered on understanding and actualizing our role in building community. The Foundation’s ability to achieve this objective is made possible through the funds listed on the following pages, and the wonderful people who have contributed to the success of these funds.

Grants and scholarships from these funds have allowed us to double our philanthropic distributions to $2,215,090 in just two years. This report provides us with an opportunity to recognize all that has been made possible through these grants and scholarships. Even more important, perhaps, is that it offers a glimpse into the hearts of our donors and the passion they share for our beloved Northwest Connecticut.

Sincerely,

Mission

To enrich the quality of life for residents of Northwest Connecticut by inspiring local philanthropy, convening stakeholders in community welfare, strengthening the regional nonprofits network and fostering collaborative funding partnerships.

Established in 1969, The Community Foundation of Northwest Connecticut, Inc., serves Litchfield County with a collection of more than 250 funds that support nonprofit organizations and provide scholarships to area students in 20 towns within the Northwest Corner, including: Barkhamsted, Bethlehem, Canaan/Falls Village, Colebrook, Cornwall, Goshen, Hartland, Harwinton, Kent, Litchfield, Morris, New Hartford, Norfolk, North Canaan, Salisbury, Sharon, Torrington, Warren, Washington and Winchester/Winsted.

Governance

In its Board of Directors, the Foundation has an active governing body that is responsible not only for establishing the mission and strategic direction of the organization, but also is charged with oversight of its finances, operations and policies. The Board, which is independent and broadly representative of the people within the Northwestern Connecticut area served by the Foundation, is comprised of individuals who have demonstrated civic leadership in a variety of ways and who have a strong record of volunteer community service.
Through your generosity, your community foundation awarded more than $2.1 million to Northwest Connecticut nonprofits and more than $93,000 in scholarships to area students.

The MacCallum Family Helps Animals Live Longer Healthier Lives

During their 35-year marriage, Shirley and Toby MacCallum shared many things, an antique business, three children and a strong sense of connection and responsibility to animals in their community. A deep respect for animals was instilled in Shirley at a young age. Growing up on a farm in Massachusetts, Shirley had plenty of opportunities to befriend animals of all kinds.

“We had rabbits, chickens, cows, horses and cats, you name it,” said Shirley. “I wanted to bring all of the animals inside. Dad was not happy about that.”

Over the years, Shirley and Toby welcomed many canine companions into their family and made regular donations to local animal welfare organizations in their community. But when they were forced to put down their longtime companion, Smokey, a mixed-breed shelter dog and member of the family for more than 18 years, Shirley was so heartbroken that she decided she would never adopt another dog. Instead, she doubled the couple’s efforts to support local animal welfare organizations that needed support.

“I gave to everything,” said Shirley, “any animal organization that needed help. I didn’t care if it was a skunk who needed help. I sent money to help.”

Then in 2003, Toby was diagnosed with cancer and given a year to live. He had one request of Shirley:

“I want a dog,” he said.

Days later, the couple ran into a colleague who was returning from his veterinarian’s office with a litter of yellow labs. Toby scooped a wiggling puppy into his arms. He looked at Shirley, and they both knew that Esmerelda “Little Molly” had found a home.

To the surprise of doctors, Toby lived for more than eight years, fighting for his life with Molly by his side. “She never left him,” said Shirley. “They were always cuddled up together. Molly would lay in the bed with him with her head on his leg. She slept with us.” They soon discovered that Molly was fighting a battle of her own. Molly was diagnosed with Lymphoma.

“Whatever happens,” Toby said to Shirley, “When I’m gone, take care of Molly.”

Toby passed away in 2012. Soon after, Molly became extremely ill. After seven months of dialysis, with Shirley a constant by her side, Molly too passed away.

“I spent so much time at the veterinarian’s office, meeting sick animals and their caregivers,” said Shirley. “I realized there is a real need in our community to reach out to sick animals whose caregivers don’t have the means to provide them with life-sustaining medical care.

“They can’t talk,” she said. “They need our help.”

Established in 2013, The MacCallum Family Fund for Animal Welfare is an endowed field-of-interest fund. The fund accepts donations from the community to provide in perpetuity resources for sick and suffering animals who require extensive and often expensive medical treatments to prolong their lives.

“I always wanted to do something for animals,” said Shirley. “This fund will continue to help them long after I’m gone.”

Supporting Organizations

A Supporting Organization is a grant-making organization that operates as a subdivision of the Foundation. Holders of private foundations often convert their foundations to supporting organizations or donor-advised funds. Supporting organizations maintain the independence of a separate board of directors and grant-making functions, but they avoid the tax burden of a private foundation because they are operated by the Community Foundation. Holders of supporting organizations at the Community Foundation enjoy a high amount of involvement in their philanthropy and avoid the administrative work and strict tax requirements placed on private foundations.

2012 Supporting Organization

John T. and Jane A. Wiederhold Foundation

In 2012, The John T. and Jane A. Wiederhold Foundation joined the Foundation as a supporting organization.

The Wiederhold Foundation was established in 1998 through a gift from John T. and Jane A. Wiederhold. The Foundation is committed to bettering the lives of domesticated and undomesticated animals, including supporting the efforts of animal rescue and land conservation organizations and advances in veterinary medicine.

The Wiederhold Foundation was created for the purpose of protecting and improving the welfare of animals of all kinds with a focus on cats and dogs, the promotion of veterinary programs and the protection of wildlife, including endangered species, flora and fauna.

Since becoming a supporting organization of your Community Foundation, The John T. and Jane A. Wiederhold Foundation trustees have approved more than $740,000 in grants to 11 nonprofit organizations.

The Little Guild of Saint Francis Renovations Improve Adoptions

On March 11, 2013, the John T. and Jane A. Wiederhold Foundation awarded The Little Guild of Saint Francis in West Cornwall $129,433 for renovations to refurbish its indoor and outdoor canine facility and to provide for the purchase of a washer and dryer.

“Currently, our dog kennels are very close and connected by a narrow hallway, which heightens stress and can trigger negative behavior as dogs often feel threatened,” said Denise Cohn, Little Guild Executive Director.

“These renovations will provide much needed stress relief for our kennel dogs and provide for a more positive environment, one that fosters friendly behavior and will help our dogs get adopted sooner.”

Anonymous Family Provides Hope to Storm Victims

Months after Superstorm Sandy, many Connecticut residents continued to struggle to recover their livelihoods and to provide nutritious food, safe shelter, transportation, clothing, and medical supplies for their families. Although the family typically supported Litchfield County nonprofits through its Local Area Fund at the Foundation, an anonymous family wanted to help.

They contacted the Foundation to provide a grant for $50,000 from their donor-advised fund to assist individuals and families continuing to struggle to recover from the storm.

The Foundation presented the $50,000 grant to the Community Foundation of Eastern Connecticut, which was working with the United Way of Southeastern Connecticut to develop a flexible application process for storm victims to apply for financial assistance funds. After receiving reports about how the money was providing for storm victims, the family provided an additional $50,000 to continue the work of restoring hope.

The gift was one of many that the family provides from its Local Area Fund. Through the Fund, the anonymous family supports Litchfield county nonprofit organizations, such as The Norfolk Chamber Music Festival, the Yankee Institute for Public Policy, Foothills Visiting Nurse and Homecare and The Housatonic Valley Association.
The Women & Girls Fund

Initiated by the Foundation in 1999, the Fund provides a unique philanthropic opportunity for community-minded women in Northwest Connecticut who are committed to improving the lives of area women and girls by raising awareness and pooling resources. By supporting the fund, women:

- Help to advance the welfare of local women and girls
- Network with women who share similar interests and values
- Help women and girls make strategic and informed decisions about their philanthropy
- Join a dynamic group that empowers other women

In a generous show of support, the State Auto Insurance Group has contributed $20,000 over four years to advance the mission of The Women & Girls Fund. This funding is helping to advance the welfare of local women and girls by meeting their real-life needs and by identifying opportunities to transform their lives. For more information about The Women & Girls Fund or to learn how you can support its mission, visit www.cfnwct.org or call 860.626.1245.

Foundation-Initiated Funds

Youth Fund
Established in 2000 through the generosity of the Borghesi family, the Youth Fund supports the Foundation’s Youth in Philanthropy program, whose purpose is to perpetuate community leadership by helping young people develop positive connections to the communities in which they live. The program involves area high school students in community activities and enlists their help in tackling regional challenges, thereby giving them a sense of ownership in community welfare and a sense of responsibility for our region’s collective future.

The Youth in Philanthropy program is designed to give young people a platform for expression and innovation that can bring about new and sustainable solutions to community issues. Through their participation in youth councils, students learn lifelong lessons about charitable giving and volunteering. And they make annual grant recommendations to the Foundation based on their examination of issues impacting youth, in particular; and their community, in general. Youth councils also help to raise money for this endowed fund.

For more information about the Youth Fund or to learn how you can support its mission, visit www.cfnwct.org or call 860.626.1245.

Critter Fund
Established by the Foundation in 2005, this endowed fund supports charitable organizations in northwest Connecticut dedicated to animal welfare. The Critter Fund assists with shelter, rescue and adoption, training, prevention of cruelty, spaying and neutering, elderly companionship, services to the disabled and wildlife preservation.

Animals play a vital role in our quality of life and, as such, are worthy of human concern and empathy. Supporters of the Critter Fund are dedicated to this premise and, by contributing to the fund, demonstrate their support of animal-related causes. For more information about the Critter Fund, or to learn how you can support its mission, visit www.cfnwct.org or call 860.626.1245.

Happier people give more and giving makes people happier…

Feeling Good About Giving, Harvard Business School; The University of British Columbia
The Community Foundation of Northwest Connecticut prides itself on providing prudent stewardship of a sizeable community endowment designed to benefit future generations of northwest Connecticut citizens. Our investment objective is to maximize the endowment’s purchasing power by pursuing long-term investment results that exceed the spending policy—the amount needed for grants and expenses—plus inflation. This allows for sufficient and predictable growth to meet pressing community needs while providing capital preservation into the future.

The oversight and assessment of the Foundation’s investments are conducted by its Board of Directors and Investment Committee. Dedicated to the pursuit of strong returns within acceptable risk tolerances, the Investment Committee employs an asset-allocation strategy designed to capitalize on a well-diversified portfolio that performs well during a variety of market and economic conditions.

In doing so, the Investment Committee considers past and expected future performance of available asset classes, including investment strategies of other community foundations, nonprofit endowments and charitable funds along with a variety of widely accepted performance benchmarks.

Performance

The 19-year net annual return ending December 31, 2012, is 9.3%.

Returns Net of Investment Manager Fees
